

Date of Review:
Website URL:
DBA Name:
ZID:
Descriptor:
DM: Number URLs Submitting to CU to Date

Description	Status
Is the website active?
Is the Website domain Public?
Is the website registered to the merchant of record?
Is the website's content password-protected?
Does the website redirect the viewer to an unrelated website?
Provide unrelated URL(s):	N/A
Is the website intended for e-commerce?
The DBA Name and Legal Name on the application must be listed on the website.
The products/services offered must be clearly described. Ingredients list/link, if applicable, must be provided
The use of endorsements, TV/media clips, trademarks, logos, or likenesses associated with companies or individuals (ex: Oprah, Dr. OZ, Google, MSNBC, Facebook, etc.) is prohibited unless the merchant has the written consent of the entity being published.
Unrealistic, false, or misleading claims made on the website are prohibited. (All claims must be substantiated directly on the website, which can include links, or by providing supporting documents.)
Conveying a false sense of urgency that causes a customer to unjustly rush to place an order (ex: countdown timer, product availability counter, ""X number available per day"", etc.) is prohibited.
The website's order checkout page must be present, functional, secure and lists full business address including country. i.e. USA. Any expired certificate must be updated.
The billing descriptor is disclosed on the checkout page of the website. For 5968/5964 - Descriptor must be the first 22 characters of URL after the prefix
Hidden/forced up-sells are prohibited (including a pre-selected sale option). Cardholders must re-enter their card data, delivery address and select the order/submit button prior to purchasing any up-sells. Initial purchase amount and related costs are totaled in a single sale
Cross-sells of products/services provided by other vendors are prohibited.
The delivery methods and shipping times must be clearly stated. Deliveries are available to the United States.
The products/services must be clearly priced and listed with a currency symbol, using numerical format. (This requirement applies to the full website, including the Terms & Conditions.)
The Terms & Conditions must be clearly described and easy-to-read (limited usage of italics, 12pt font size, no confusing verbiage, large and easy to navigate box/window if applicable, or not obscured by any surrounding color contrast or distracting graphics). Hyperlinks to Terms & Conditions and Privacy Policy must be on the Terms on the checkout page
The Refund/Return Policy must be present. Return address must match what is on record.
The Privacy Policy must be present. The sharing of card data with other vendors is prohibited such as provisions that auto enrolls cardholders in auto-dialing/Robocalls
A toll-free customer service telephone number must be listed on the website, operational, and based out of the country where the company is located.
One of the following must be available on the website and must match what is on record: business mailing address, e-mail address, online chat.
Are there accepted card brands that are visible in the checkout page?
Does the merchant offer a trial or have a negative option continuity offer?
The trial period must begin on the date that the product is received by the cardholder and the trial offers must allow at least 4 days for shipping. Disclosure of shipping times must be separate from the trial period.
How long is the trial period?
The trial period is within 7 to 30 days.
For Direct Marketing: No more than 1 trial option at the checkout page or recurring plans greater than 30 Days.
For Direct Marketing: Billing models across the MLE must be consistent (SS Only, CO Only, Mixed Billing Model)
The merchant is prohibited from marketing its products/services as ""risk-free"", ""free"", or ""no cost"".
The terms of the sale must be placed directly above or to the left of the order/submit button.
The merchant must have a functional Opt-In feature present next to hyperlinks to Terms & Conditions and Privacy Policy , located above the order/submit button on the order checkout page, that requires customers to agree to the terms of the sale.
The terms being disclosed on the order checkout page must include Payment Page Terms and Conditions verbiage on the checkout pages. Please see below for what the trial offer Terms vebiage must include.
Full product price is not billed twice in a 30-day period
The complete terms on the order checkout page must be consistent with the Terms & Conditions. Terms of sale on the checkout page must reflect only the selected purchase option. Customers should not have the option to agree to terms prior to the offer selection
The Cancellation Policy must be present. The merchant must provide a direct link to an online cancellation procedure for recurring payment transactions on the website where the cardholder made the initial purchase.
The merchant cannot require customers to return their ""trial"" sample to receive a refund or cancel a subscription.

Additional Comments:

Website URL:

Payment Page Terms and Conditions Verbiage:

- o Your trial will begin upon receipt of PRODUCT
- o For all MasterCard transactions ONLY: within X DAYS, you will receive an email requiring your response to activate the monthly auto-ship program. If you are happy with PRODUCT, you are required to consent to the monthly auto-ship program in order to receive additional PRODUCT